The California Community Colleges is a system of two-year public institutions comprised of 116 colleges statewide organized into 73 districts. The largest system of higher education in the nation, the California Community Colleges serve more than 1.8 million students. The community colleges play an important role in ensuring that all California residents have access to quality higher education.

Community colleges offer low-cost, high quality collegiate courses to all students who can benefit from instruction offered. Enrollment fees are $46 per unit. Financial assistance is available for students who need help in meeting their educational costs. Resident enrollment fees at a community college are approximately $1,388 for one year, compared to $5,742 at California State University (CSU)(2022/23) and an estimated average cost of $13,104 at University of California (UC) (2022/23).

The Ventura County Community College District (District) prohibits all forms of harassment and discrimination based on any of the following statuses: race, religious creed, color, national origin, ancestry, physical disability, mental disability, medical condition, genetic information, marital status, sex, gender, gender identity, gender expression, age, or sexual orientation of any person, or on the basis of these perceived characteristics or based on the association with a person or group with one or more of these actual or perceived characteristics.

VENTURA COUNTY COMMUNITY COLLEGES

is a public community college district serving residents throughout Ventura County. VCCCD's three colleges—Moorpark College, Oxnard College, and Ventura College—offer programs for transfer to four-year colleges and universities; career training; basic skills instruction; as well as community service, economic development partnerships, and continuing education for cultural growth, life enrichment, and skills improvement.
